

In Honor Of
Major General Eldon A. Bargewell
United States Army Retired

DEDICATION of DELTA PARK
May 20, 2023

Hoquiam, Washington

Ballad of the Green Berets

Fighting soldiers from the sky
Fearless men who jump and die
Men who mean just what they say
The brave men of the Green Beret

Silver wings upon their chest
These are men, America's best
One hundred men will test today
But only three win the Green Beret

Trained to live off nature's land
Trained in combat, hand-to-hand
Men who fight by night and day
Courage take from the Green Berets

Silver wings upon their chest
These are men, America's best
One hundred men will test today
But only three win the Green Beret

Back at home, a young wife waits
Her Green Beret has met his fate
He has died for those oppressed
Leaving her his last request.

Put silver wings on my son's chest
Make him one of America's best
He'll be a man they'll test one day
Have him win the Green Beret

The Legacy

VIETNAM MAC-V SOG TEAM

MG ELDON A. BARGEWELL, United States Army (ret), was born in Hoquiam, Washington and graduated from Hoquiam High School in 1965. During the Vietnam War Bargewell completed Special Forces training and was accepted into MACV-SOG where he served at the "Command And Control North" launch site at Da Nang and served as team leader for Reconnaissance Team "Viper" (all CCN teams were named for states or snakes). Bargewell conducted over 25 recon, direct action and team recovery missions into Laos and North Viet Nam. As a young reconnaissance sergeant leading teams across the border into North Vietnam and Laos he was fearless under the most dangerous and complex conditions. He was wounded on four separate occasions and was awarded our nation's second highest award for valor, the Distinguished Service Cross, for his gallantry in action. He was the last recipient of a DSC awarded for actions in Vietnam remaining on active duty when he retired in 2006.

After graduating with honors from Ranger School and Officer Candidate School, he was handpicked to serve as a Ranger platoon leader in B Company (Ranger) Long Range Reconnaissance Patrols (LRRPs) and then the newly activated 2nd Ranger Battalion. Major General Bargewell had an unparalleled impact on the Ranger community spanning four decades.

During his 17 years in 1st Special Forces, Operational Detachment-Delta (SFOD-D), he was instrumental in integrating companies from the Ranger Battalions in training and exercise scenarios. While in Delta Force Bargewell participated in Operation Acid Gambit in Panama.

After the Mogadishu Operation, he changed the Joint Special Operations Command exercise program and scenarios to force better integration and cooperation between the Ranger Battalions and 1st SFOD-D. The development of complimentary doctrine and tactics, techniques, and procedures during this time helped cement the concept that Special Operations Force units with different tactical focuses need to support each other directly on operations. This integration has produced tremendous results for contingency operations worldwide.

Throughout his distinguished career, Major General Bargewell was the absolute role model of authenticity, competency, and quiet professionalism for at least two generations of Rangers and special operations soldiers. His personal courage as a young Ranger NCO and over three decades as a special operations leader has brought true meaning to these words from the Ranger Creed: "Never shall I fail my comrades; gallantly will I show the world I am a specially selected and well-trained soldier; and I will never leave a fallen comrade".

He completed a Bachelor of Science degree in resource management at Troy State University.

Bargewell died 19 April 2019, in a lawnmower accident near his home in Eufaula, Ala. at the age of 71.

MG Bargewell's military decorations include: the Distinguished Service Cross, Defense Distinguished Service Medal, Army Distinguished Service Medal, Defense Superior Service Medal (5), Legion of Merit, Bronze Star Medal for valor (3), Bronze Star Medal for service (3), Purple Heart (4), Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Army Meritorious Service Medal, Air Medal, Army Commendation Medal for Valor, Army Commendation Medal for service, Army Good Conduct Medal, National Defense Service Medal (2), Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal w/Bronze Arrowhead, Vietnam Service Medal (7), Southwest Asia Service Medal, Armed Forces Service Medal, Humanitarian Service Medal, NATO Medal(3), NCO Professional Development Ribbon, Army Service Ribbon, GWOT Service Medal, Overseas Service Ribbon, Republic of Vietnam Campaign Medal, Kuwait Liberation Medal , Presidential Unit Citation (MACV SOG-VN), Joint Meritorious Unit Citation (2), Valorous Unit Award, Meritorious Unit Commendation, Republic of Vietnam Gallantry Cross Unit Citation, Republic of Vietnam Civil Actions Unit Citation, French Service Medal (Ex-Yugoslavia), Combat Infantry Badge, Master Parachutists Badge, Special Forces Tab, Ranger Tab, Military Free Fall Badge, Vietnamese HALO badge, Vietnamese, German, and Thai Parachute Badges.

MG Bargewell is also the recipient of the Colonel Aaron Bank award (2007), the Greater DC SOF Old and Bold Mountain Man award (2009), and the USSOCOM Bull Simons Award (2010). He is a member of the Infantry Officers Candidate Hall of Fame-(1997) and an enlisted Honor Graduate Ranger School (1970). Bargewell was inducted into the U.S. Army Ranger Hall of Fame in 2011. In April 2023 MG Bargewell was inducted into the Commando Hall of Fame.

ELDON, CAMPING WITH HIS FAMILY

"We are creating Delta Park honoring Major General Eldon A. Bargewell because he is a role model for our young people," declares Fry.

"Not because he was a soldier but because he was a guy who did his job. We want to show how a guy from an itty bitty town in Washington can influence the world."

~ Jason Fry, childhood neighbor and classmate, chairman of Eldon A Bargewell Memorial Committee.

GEN (ret) PETER J. SCHOOMAKER, was born on February 12, 1946, in Detroit, Michigan. He was raised in an army family. After attending East Lansing High School, he graduated from the University of Wyoming in 1969 with a Bachelor of Science degree in education administration and was commissioned in the armor branch. A football player, he was a starter on Wyoming's Sugar Bowl team. He holds a Master of Arts degree in management from Central Michigan University and an Honorary Doctor of Laws from Hampden–Sydney College. Schoomaker attended the United States Army Command and General Staff College from August 1981 to June 1982 and the National War College from August 1988 to June 1989. He is Airborne, Ranger, and Special Forces qualified.

As both a conventional and special operations officer, he served in multiple positions of responsibility, including Squadron Commander, 1st Special Forces Operational Detachment–Delta, on two occasions; Commander of SFOD-D; Assistant Division Commander of the 1st Cavalry Division; Commanding General of Joint Special Operations Command and Commander-In-Chief of the United States Army Special Operations Command.

General Schoomaker retired from active duty in 2000 but was recalled in 2003 to active duty by President George W. Bush at the request of Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld to serve as the 35th Chief of Staff of the Army. He is one of the only two general officers recalled to such service and is the first Special Forces-trained officer to serve in this capacity. Schoomaker retired at the end of his tour of duty as Chief of Staff in 2007.

During his military career, General Schoomaker participated in numerous deployments, including "Operation Eagle Claw" in Iran, "Urgent Fury" in Grenada, "Just Cause" in Panama, "Operation Desert Shield" and "Desert Storm" in Southwest Asia, "Uphold Democracy" in Haiti, as well as multiple covert missions.

He has multiple awards and decorations, including three Defense Distinguished Service medals, three army Distinguished Service medals, four Defense Superior Service medals, three Legion of Merits, two Bronze Star medals, the Combat Infantry Badge, Master Parachutist Badge and Halo Wings, the Special Forces Tab, and the Ranger Tab.

In 2013, General Peter j. Schoomaker was inducted into the Ranger Hall of Fame for over 44 years of outstanding service to the United States Army as a Ranger leader, Army officer, and ultimately, as the Chief of Staff of the Army. General Schoomaker is also the recipient of the USSOCOM Bull Simons Award (2016).

After his retirement from active duty, Schoomaker served as a Director for DynCorp, as well as on the advisory boards of Camber Corporation and EWA-Government Systems Inc. Concurrently, Schoomaker was the Director of CAE USA Inc. from November 2007 to February 2009, where he still serves a member of the Human Resources Committee as well as an independent director and consultant on defense matters. Schoomaker is also currently a Director of Aeroflex Incorporated and several private and non-profit companies, including the Special Operations Warrior Foundation. In 2018, Peter Schoomaker joined MAG Aerospace's board of directors.

ADM(ret) ERIC T. OLSON, was born January 24, 1952, in Tacoma, Washington. Admiral Olson graduated from the United States Naval Academy in 1973 and qualified as a Naval Special Warfare (SEAL) officer in 1974. He graduated in BUD/S Class 76. He has served operationally in an Underwater Demolition Team, SEAL Team, SEAL Delivery Vehicle Team, Special Boat Squadron, and at the Naval Special Warfare Development Group. Admiral Olson earned a Master of Arts degree in National Security Affairs at the Naval Postgraduate School in 1985 and studied at the Defense Language Institute.

Admiral Olson has participated in several conflicts and contingency operations, and has served as a SEAL platoon commander, BUD/S instructor. His overseas assignments include service as a United Nations military observer in Israel and Egypt. He was commanding officer of SEAL Delivery Vehicle Team ONE and commanded Special Boat Squadron TWO before rejoining DEVGRU.

In Oct 1993, Olson participated in the Battle of Mogadishu, he was later awarded the Silver Star for his actions which was cited as "... during combat actions in Mogadishu, Somalia, in October 1993. while under withering enemy fire during actions in support of UNOSOM II operations, Captain Olson demonstrated a complete disregard for his own personal safety in the accomplishment of his mission".

The admiral became commander of the Naval Special Warfare Development Group, an American counter-terrorism unit. He last served as the eighth Commander, U.S. Special Operations Command (USSOCOM). Admiral Olson was the first Navy SEAL ever to be appointed to three-star and four-star flag rank, as well as the first naval officer to be USSOCOM's combatant commander. He retired from active duty on August 22, 2011, after over 38 years of service.

His awards include the SEAL Trident, the Defense Distinguished Service Medal, Navy Distinguished Service Medal, Silver Star, Defense Superior Service Medal (2), Legion of Merit, Bronze Star (w/Combat V), Vietnam Service Medal with bronze campaign star, Navy and Marine Corps Parachutist Insignia, Joint Chiefs of Staff Identification Badge, United States Special Operations Command Badge.

Sculptor Rip Caswell, was raised and educated in Grays Harbor County, Washington. When he was in the 6th grade, his family moved to Montesano, approximately 15 miles from MG Eldon Bargewell Delta Park. He graduated from Montesano High School in 1981, and in 1983 he received his Welding and Metal Fabrication Certification from Grays Harbor College.

Rip learned his artistic and taxidermy skills as a teenager Montesano. He eventually opened a side job doing taxidermy work for local duck hunters, which he discovered he was very good at it. As he progressed, his trademark became combining his contemporary sculpture skills with taxidermy. In the late 1980s he began to enter taxidermy competitions, where he earned numerous awards, and in the 1991 National Taxidermists Association annual competition he earned the “Best of Show Award.” During that time, he left the Harbor to pursue taxidermy and his passion of art as a full-time profession, eventually settling in Troutdale, Oregon.

Caswell’s wildlife sculptures have earned him a reputation as one of the leading authorities in wildlife art. In 2008, a nationally televised PBS show titled “Discover the Wild” featured Rip as he created his sculptures. Producer Neil Rogers is attributed as saying that “he has never seen a sculptor in the United States that captures the emotion, spirit, and anatomy of an animal as well as Rip Caswell.” As Rip’s reputation grew, his life-size wildlife sculpture became centerpieces for large developments, homes, museums and major parks. His skills eventually took him to creating monumental artworks now found in public spaces, universities, commercial developments and private collections in all 50 states, as well as abroad.

Although he lives and works in the Troutdale area, Rip will tell you “I always consider Montesano my home. My roots, and the core of who I am, were formed by the Harbor.”

When Rip Caswell was selected as sculptor for the MG Eldon Bargewell Memorial, he was delighted to have an opportunity to be considered for a major sculpture in what he refers to as his “hometown community.”
